

Objectives

1. To develop products and services that facilitate the application of AeroSpace education to formal and informal education and lifelong learning.
2. To transmit information in useful and transferable media and to share new knowledge with the education community.
3. To provide teachers in the state of Delaware with current, broad-based teacher-friendly AeroSpace resources that are aligned with the State of Delaware's content standards.